

SYLVA

2351-AGB

Sylva is an overscale articulating sconce that nods to mid-century design. Anchored by a counterweight-inspired sphere, the composition feels both expressive and utilitarian. The handicraft hemp shade is paired with a rattan-wrapped arm and timeless Aged Brass metal frame for a textural, innovative material story. The swiveling functionality allows light to be directed as needed, bringing functionality to a bedside or reading nook.
